Further details

The School of Economics is offering a scholarship for our MSc Development Economics programme for 2021/22. The scholarships are available to outstanding students from low-/lower-middle-income countries, who have secured a scholarship of at least 50% of the full tuition fee through another recognised funder. The School will pay the difference to the full tuition fee.

All scholarships take the form of a School payment towards tuition fees, and will be paid once the recipient is fully registered at the University of Kent.

You should be aware that this scholarship does not cover the full cost of studying at Kent, and that you will need to have additional sources of funding in order to cover your accommodation, travel and living expenses.

How to apply

To apply for the MSc Development Economics Scholarship you need to do two things:

1. Ensure that you have already submitted an application for a place of study on one of our programmes via the below link: <https://www.kent.ac.uk/courses/postgraduate/how-to-apply/>

N.B. Scholarship applications cannot be considered without an application to study.

2. Complete a Scholarship application form.

The closing date for this scholarship is Monday 21 June 2021 and decisions will be made shortly after this date.

Unfortunately due to the volume of applications we are unable to provide feedback on rejected applications.

If you have any queries about our scholarships, please contact our Admissions Team at hssadmissions@kent.ac.uk.
