

Sandvik Apprenticeship 2021

Author: Nicholas Mushayi . October 2021

Sandvik Mining and Rock Technology is a global leader in the supply of equipment, tools, services, support and technical solutions for the mining and construction industry. We offer a diverse range of opportunities through our businesses and cross-border networks, enabling you to explore your potential and thrive.

The Role

- Apprentices in the following trades
- Diesel Plant Fitter
- Millwright
- Instrument Technician

Key Performance Areas:

- Commitment to adhere to Environment Health and Safety Management Systems and Standards- Mature and self-disciplined- Hands on a commitment to getting the job done- Good communication and interpersonal skills- Have a passion for meeting deadlines- Willing to learn- Willing to embrace and apply new digital technology

Your Profile:

- A minimum of 5 O Level subjects (including English, Mathematics, and Science) with grade C or better (preference will be given to applicants with higher educational qualifications)- In addition to the above requirements, applicants for Millwright trade should hold at least a national Certificate in any of the following trades: Electrical Power, Mechanical or Automotive- Applicants for Instrument Technician must have at least two A-Level Science subjects and Grade B or Better in Mathematics and Science at O Level- Clearance letter from the Industrial Training Department.- Certified copies of National I.D, Birth, and Educational Certificates.- A valid Provisional /full Driver's license is required for those applying for Diesel Plant Fitter/Millwright trade- Be aged between 16 and 21 years

Applications close: 22nd October 2021

Click here to apply

